“Abortion May Be Legal, But It Is Still Morally Wrong!”

January - February - March - 2021

Liberal Democrats Win Two Georgia Senate Seats, Turn U.S. Senate to Democrats

By Louis Kavanaugh Jr.

On January 6, the Democrats picked up two senate seats in Georgia and now have control of the U.S. Senate at 50-50 with Kamala Harris having the deciding vote. Both pro-life senators lost by less than a percentage point in very close races. It was just like many races in the past where the pro-life Republicans were ahead late on election night and into the hours of the next morning and then were overtaken and lost by a slim margin. It makes you wonder. The Democrats now have control of all three branches of government but just barely.

Democratic candidate Jon Ossoff defeated incumbent Republican Georgia Senator David Perdue in Tuesday's runoff election. The victory for the pro-abortion Democrats over the pro-life senators essentially puts the Senate in Democrat hands by giving pro-abortion radical Kamala Harris the tie-breaking vote when she becomes Vice President. Earlier Raphael Warnock defeated pro-life Senator Kelly Loeffler. With both senators losing their races, the Senate will have a 50-50 party split, and Kamala Harris, a pro-abortion Democrat, would cast the deciding vote on issues like forcing taxpayers to fund abortions and expanding late-term abortions and many other abortion related items on the abortion wants lists. Warnock will have to face the voters in two years as he is just filling out the seat for a senator who resigned from office earlier in 2020 and Loeffler was appointed to that seat until this election.

Let Me Get this Straight!
The Democrat Party Supports Abortion
over Life, Illegals over its own Citizens and now wants to Lecture us on Morals? I don't think so!

What's Next for the Pro-Life Movement Under a Biden Administration? By Louis Kavanaugh Jr.

We are headed into some dark times under a Biden/Harris Administration, but we in the pro-life movement have no choice but to keep fighting for the lives of the unborn. We do not know what the full extent of a Biden presidency may be, but we know enough that it will be in full support of the pro-abortion agenda. We are told by his people that on his first day as president he will issue executive orders to undo all the pro-life executive orders that were put in place by President Trump! We feel that deaths by abortion will definitely rise in the Biden Administration and the support of Planned Parenthood will be their main agenda. Biden/Harris have supported abortion up to the time of birth—a big change for Mr. Biden as he had not gone that far in the past, but we believe he has done this to appease the far left of the Democrat party. He has also embraced many parts of socialism that will be very destructive to our country and religious concerns. May God protect the unborn!

What Democrats Have in Mind for the U.S. Senate and U.S. House

Kristan Hawkins, president of Students for Life Action, says Democrats also could pack the U.S. Supreme Court with pro-abortion activist judges and these candidates' positions on abortion could not be more starkly different. In the U.S. House it is one of the slimmest of margins but nonetheless pro-abortion speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi is still in control. It is expected that the Democrats will push their radical pro-abortion agenda even further if that is possible.

The claim that Pelosi is making, that she would repeal the Hyde Amendment, it just makes the election that much more critical. Now that Democrats were able to gain control of the Senate, they would strip away all pro-life protections that are currently afforded to the unborn, including the Hyde Amendment. It is truly a very sad day for our country and the pro-life movement.

Rally for Trump in Washington DC on January 6: What Went Wrong?

By Louis Kavanaugh Jr.

Let us set the record straight: We do not condone in any way what took place with the occupation and destruction of property at the U.S. Capitol on Wednesday January 6. This should not have happened!

It was totally uncharacteristic for President Trump's supporters to go on a rampage and destroy property and be unruly, and it has left many to wonder just what happened. What brought this on? Of course, it did not take long for the many news pundits across the country to blame President Trump for inciting his followers as these same news people have been blaming this president since day one of his administration. Was it the president's fault? At no time did the president say to storm the Capitol or use language that would incite the crowd. He did ask them to be peaceful. But this will never stop the liberal Democrats or their friends in the media from blaming the president for what happened.

We know the frustration that many of the Trump supporters felt with the voter fraud that has taken place in this presidential election, but it does not sound like the typical Trump supporter breaching security like this. Of the hundreds of Trump rallies that have taken place across the country, this was a first for something like this to happen. Was there outside influence that caused this to happen? We don't know this, but whatever the case, it reflected badly on the president's cause to look into the voter fraud that took place in this election. When this happened, many of the Republicans that were standing up for the president simply caved in and gave their approval to the Electoral College vote. This was truly a sad day in the history of our country.

Please Note: It is interesting that within minutes of the siege of the U.S. Capitol, President-Elect Biden went on the airwaves to condemn the violence and blame President Trump for it. It was ironic that last summer during the rioting and looting in the Democratic cities across the country, Joe Biden and Kamala Harris were almost silent with a lukewarm response and even gave sympathies to the rioters and looters. Vice President-Elect Kamala Harris even went so far as to raise money for bail for the rioters and looters along with her sympathy towards their cause. She was also joined in this endeavor by other prominent Democrats. Now isn't it ironic that now they have changed their tune on lawless behavior! Once again, they have applied a double standard when it is convenient and it supports their cause. Now they have changed their tune on lawless behavior!

"WITHOUT A GUARANTEED RIGHT TO LIFE, ALL OTHER RIGHTS ARE LEGAL FICTIONS"

The Liberal Media Bashing of President Trump Will Never End

By Louis Kavanaugh Jr.

When anyone raises objections to the 2020 presidential election with claims of voter fraud the media and liberal Democrats go crazy and call out individuals that raise these concerns as treasonous. Are they just afraid of an investigation and what may be uncovered?

Liberal writers and liberal Democrats remind me of Sargent Schultz from the old TV program Hogan's Heroes when he responds, "I hear nothing, I know nothing, I see nothing." All the charges of voter fraud that have been brought to light since the election from states across the country and the liberal media or Democrats don't want to hear it. They put their hands over their eyes and ears and say this voter fraud is made up and does not exist. The president was ahead on election night in all of these states and into the next day but surprisingly the Democrats found boxes of paper ballots with only votes for Biden.

They point to court cases where judges have refused to hear the case. Why have the courts refused to get involved in these cases? Is it because there is no evidence, or is it because these judges are afraid to take on these cases? It is evident there was massive voter fraud from dead people voting, people voting twice, unauthorized signatures, Democrat poll workers counting ballots when they were unsupervised in the early hours of the morning after the counting had stopped, to computer systems that appeared to be fraudulent and many more irregularities that took place in these key battleground states. When the poll watchers came forward to tell their account of what they witnessed, they were harassed and threatened with everything from loss of life to loss of their livelihood.

What can be done to address the corruption that took place in the presidential election? It appears that the U.S. Supreme Court is unwilling to get involved and get to the bottom of this election fraud. Oh, I am sure the Democrats and their cohorts in crime and the liberal media will continue to turn a deaf ear to this corruption because their man has been declared the winner.

But what is concerning is the fact that a great percentage of the American public feel the election was tainted with fraud and feel that Joe Biden did not win this election. A black cloud will forever hang over the 2020 presidential election because of the corruption and those people in the position to do something about it is refusing to get involved. Just because the judges refused to get involved does not mean that voter fraud did not happen.

In a related story that shows just how the liberal media is in bed with the Democrats, the liberal media suppressed all stories of the Biden family corruption during the campaign, and now the truth will never be known. In another opinion story recently, a liberal columnist bemoaned the fact that President Trump's supporters do not accept the election results and this is bad for our country. These liberal pundits have a short memory and they forget how they acted when President Trump was elected and for four years, they refused to continued on PAGE 3

Regardless of the Outcome of This Election, President Trump Deserves Our Gratitude for Many Reasons By Louis Kavanaugh Jr.

I found this recently and thought this would be good to pass along to our readers. Some may not agree with everything President Trump did, whether his tweets or what he has said, but many are thankful for him being a pro-life and a pro-family president. See below what all this president has done for the pro-life movement, the unborn and for the country.

Pro-Life Accomplishments

- Appointed pro-life judges, including three to the U.S. Supreme Court
- Allowed states to defund Planned Parenthood of Title X and Medicaid money
- Stopped taxpayer funding of abortion overseas
- Defunded the pro-abortion United Nations Population Fund, which cooperates with China's forced abortion regime
- Required health insurers to disclose if their plans cover abortions
- Cut $60 million from Planned Parenthood's federal funding
- Ended the Obama-enforced contraceptive mandate, which had forced corporations with religious objections from covering abortifacients in their health plans
- Appointed many strong pro-lifers to key positions within his administration
- Created a new office for civil rights at the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
- Canceled contract for taxpayer-funded experimentation with aborted baby body parts
- Allowed Texas to fund a health program that does not send funds to abortion businesses

- Withheld $200 million from California for violating conscience rights. The state had imposed universal abortion coverage mandates on health insurance.
- Took action against Vermont for violating conscience rights and forcing a nurse to help abort a baby
- Became the first American president to speak at the March for Life
- Signed an executive order protecting preemies and infants born alive after failed abortions
- Clarified that abortion is not a "civil right"
- U.S. Secretary of State Mike Pompeo signed the Geneva Consensus Declaration, joining 31 other nations to declare there is "no international right to abortion" at the U.N.
- Asked the U.S. Supreme Court to restore the ban on at-home use of abortion pills
- Withdrew U.S. funding ($450 million) from the pro-abortion World Health Organization (WHO), which has close ties to Communist China work with him and fought him every day of his administration. They used the term "He is not my president" to show their resentment and unwillingness to work with him. They have selective memory!

Well we may be in for some dark times ahead with the pro-abortion people that Mr. Biden will bring into his administration and to the White House. We have much to pray to turn this nation back to God and to a Christian Nation.

Thank You, Mr. President!

The pro-life movement has to be very grateful to President Trump for the four years of his presidency. With the appointment of federal judges, Supreme Court judges, pro-life appointments to key positions, and to his many executive orders that helped the unborn, we have to be very grateful to this president for all he has done for the unborn and the pro-life movement. Well done, Mr. President, we appreciate what you have done for the unborn.

Right: President Donald Trump as he appeared at the March for Life in Washington D.C. in January of 2020.

Coverage of Capitol Protests by Mainstream Media Called Out

During the months of anti-police violence, prominent voices “excused” the violence when it fit their agenda, says Tim Graham.

The media went out of its way in 2020 to paint sometimes-violent protests across the nation as mostly “peaceful,” but finally came around on the Wednesday January 6 demonstration at the U.S. Capitol to the notion that mayhem and anarchy is always unacceptable; all it took was Trump supporters causing the chaos to spark a swift change of heart.

“It’s not hard to find prominent voices on the left who are suddenly finding lawlessness inexcusable, after suggesting it was excusable if it forwarded their agenda. They used words like ‘rebellion’ to glamorize unrest,” according to Media Research Center executive editor Tim Graham.

Washington, D.C., police said late Wednesday that the security breach at the U.S. Capitol resulted in four deaths – including a woman who had been shot – and at least 52 arrests. The tragic scene has been widely condemned by just about anyone with a public platform – a stark difference to how last summer’s protests over police brutality were reported.

Last year MSNBC anchor Ali Velshi, who was reporting live from Minneapolis following the death of George Floyd, told viewers that the situation was “not generally speaking unruly” – while standing in front of a burning building.

ABC News was criticized in July for describing a California protest that featured demonstrators setting fire to a courthouse, vandalizing a police station, and shooting fireworks at police officers, as “peaceful.” CBS Evening News anchor Norah O’Donnell said “mostly peaceful” protests would cost $1 billion to $2 billion in claims as a result of damage from looting and arson, and CNN’s Omar Jimenez was famously reporting live in front of a raging fire amid Kenosha, Wis., chaos and the headline at the bottom of the screen read, “FIERY BUT MOSTLY PEACEFUL PROTESTS AFTER POLICE SHOOTING.”

CNN’s Chris Cuomo even asked viewers during the BLM rioting/looting, “Please, show me where it says that protesters are supposed to be polite and peaceful.” But the CNN host felt differently on the Capitol riot. “Protestors use speech. Angry. Not peaceful often ... outraged, cursing ... and that is protected. Sedition is not. Criminality is not. These were mobs that trashed the Capitol and got light treatment for it. This is where we are. And it is ugly,” Cuomo tweeted. Do we have a double standard here? I think so! Cuomo, who was criticized on social media as old clips were unearthed, defended himself by saying “false equivalency BS is killing us.”

Graham believes the chaos that played out on live television was so serious that “it’s no time for double standards” from the press, who should have condemned violence all along. “It’s time for standards, and respecting the home of our Congress is the lowest standard for American civilization. We should insist that trashing an Apple store is inexcusable. Trashing our Capitol is even worse,” Graham said.

Grabien Media founder Tom Elliott put together a montage of media members endorsing political violence from Antifa that further illustrates the hypocrisy.

Conservative strategist Chris Barron told Fox News that “violence is always wrong” but “the mainstream media spent months telling people that it was a legitimate political tool” until that narrative became inconvenient.

“They whitewashed the violence, they encouraged it and now they felt outrage when folks who they politically disagree with act in the exact same way,” Barron said.

President and Others Shut off from Social Media Platforms, Free Speech Under Attack!

By Louis Kavanaugh Jr.

In what may be considered an attack on free speech, President Trump and other citizens have been shut off from various social media platforms. After Twitter censored him, Trump posted this statement on the official governmental account of the office of President, @POTUS. It was later shut down too!

President Trump stated: “As I have been saying for a long time, Twitter has gone further and further in banning free speech, and tonight, Twitter employees have coordinated with the Democrats and the Radical Left in removing my account from their platform, to silence me—and YOU, the 75,000,000 great patriots who voted for me,” Trump said in a statement. “Twitter may be a private company, but without the government’s gift of Section 230 they would not exist for long,” he added. “I predicted this would happen. We have been negotiating with various other sites, and will have a big announcement soon, while we also look at the possibilities of building out our own platform in the near future. We will not be SILENCED!” Trump continued, “Twitter is not about FREE SPEECH. They are all about promoting a Radical Left platform where some of the most vicious people in the world are allowed to speak freely,” Trump concluded. “STAY TUNED!”

Shortly after President Trump posted the statement, Twitter suspended that account also. “Using another account to try to evade a suspension is against our rules,” Twitter said in a statement to news outlets. “We have taken steps to enforce this with regard to recent Tweets from the @POTUS account.”

“For government accounts, such as @POTUS and @WhiteHouse, we will not suspend those accounts permanently but will take action to limit their use.”

Facebook and Twitter have lost a combined $51 billion in market value since banning President Donald Trump from their platforms as Americans across the country divest themselves from the companies’ stock offerings.

It is truly a sad day in America when these liberal elements have taken power to the extreme so as to silence conservative speech not only from the president but other conservative pro-life people. The Democrats and the media have been empowered by this election and they intend to silence the opposition. How far will they go? Time will tell!

What Joe Biden's Administration Plans for Our Country

For those who voted for Joe Biden, this is what you have helped to promote in our country! Something to think about!

- Abortion Joe Biden is already on record as predisposed to court packing, turning our Supreme Court into a pro-abortion hive filled with liberal pro-abortion judges.
- Biden and Harris will work with Pelosi to end the “gag rule” (Mexico City Policy) and firmly connect foreign humanitarian aid to abortifacients and contraceptive use.
- Ending the Hyde Amendment and allowing federal dollars to finance abortions. This amendment has saved 2.5 MILLION unborn babies since 1976.
- Ending the Helms Amendment prohibiting the coercion of young mothers to have abortions.
- Rescind a series of Trump-era executive orders prohibiting federal healthcare dollars from being used to fund abortions.
- Push RU-486 into the hands of young mothers both during and after the COVID-19 epidemic by allowing mifepristone to be prescribed via telehealth.
- Publicly commit US foreign aid to the spread of abortion and contraceptive use, particularly in majority Catholic sub-Saharan Africa.
- Stack the executive branch with pro-abortion people so that future pro-life presidents cannot easily adjust policy.
- In the first 90 days, radically transform the US State Department and US Health and Human Services Department with a pro-abortion missionary agenda focused on “human rights” rather than natural rights.
- Implement a new Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) directive to allow federal bureaucrats to push abortion and abortion-related services onto undocumented immigrants before sending them back to their point of origin.

Every appointment to the Biden administration has a strong pro-abortion background and agenda.

Why Would Courts Not Take Up the Case of Election Fraud?

By Louis Kavanaugh Jr.

Many Trump supporters have asked this question: why have the courts refused to even look at the evidence brought up in the 2020 presidential election fraud cases?

It makes you wonder if they are too scared to buck the system or if they fear they will open a Pandora's Box. One reason that has surfaced is that some of these judges are appointed by Democrats and will not buck the system and even some that are appointed by republicans simply don't want to get into this controversy. Some see it as there has always been voter fraud in these big cities and it was not enough to change the outcome of the election. But in many of these states it seemed it was massive fraud and could not be overlooked.

We may never know the answer to these questions, but it just seemed some of these judges felt this was sacred ground that you do not change the outcome of the election no matter how much fraud was uncovered. The problem with this thinking is that if we don't get to the bottom of this voter fraud it will continue to get worse; and sad to say, we may never elect a pro-life Republican again. Some may ask, What about a pro-life Democrat president? Well, those days are long gone. There used to be a few pro-life Democrat office holders, but they don't exist anymore. In the last 15-20 years, the pro-life office holders in the Democrat party have been defeated by pro-abortion Democrats as the party has gone farther to the left; and there is no one left who supports the pro-life position in the Democrat party. They readily admit they are the party of abortion. We now may be facing a point of no return. This election may be the election that sends us sliding down that slippery slope of no return. We have much to pray for.

House Votes to Impeach Trump, But Is He really Impeached?

By Louis Kavanaugh Jr.

While the media is saying the president was impeached, is he really impeached? He was impeached by the House and it is yet to be determined if the Senate will do the same. So in all honesty the first step was taken but he has not been impeached at this time. In their rush to punish this president that they hate so much with all their heart, they rushed it through the House in one day. In no way did the president incite a riot like these liberal Democrats are saying. They truly are stretching it to the point, saying and doing anything they can to “get” the president. While some media voices are saying the president was alone in this, 198 House Republicans stood by him while 10 Republican Congressmen who never did like the president chose to abandon him. It remains to be seen what will happen in the Senate on the impeachment process. There are several Republicans in the Senate who dislike the president, but there may not be enough to actually impeach him. We are truly in a divided country. What happened to Mr. Biden's pledge to unite the country? Is he really trying?

Crosses Erected By Right to Life at Grace Baptist Church Lawn

Pictured here are white crosses with a heart on them that were recently erected on the lawn at Grace Baptist Church on Highland Avenue and Troy Road. The crosses and signs were donated to the Daviess County Right to Life by Dr. William Phillips of Washington. The crosses and signs have been on display in Dr. Phillips' lawn on the east side of Washington for many years. He recently donated the crosses and the large signs to the local Right to Life group and felt a new location might create more visibility for the display and get more recognition. The crosses represent the infants killed by abortion, and the red heart on each cross signify that a child that dies of abortion had a beating heart.

According to Louis Kavanaugh Jr., president of Daviess County Right to Life, "We are thankful for the donation by Dr. Phillips, as this display signifies a cemetery for the unborn. It represents that in each child that dies from abortion there was a heart beating that has been snuffed out and we need to mark that passing." Also donated with the 30 white crosses were two 4 by 8 signs, one of which reads "Choose Christ & Choose Life" and the other one reads "Every 24 Seconds, a Baby's Heart Stops Beating." This display of crosses on the lawn at Grace Baptist Church is the first location selected for this display as it is the intention of the Right to Life to move them to various locations around the county. This display can either be put on a church lawn or can be put on an individual's private property if they desire. Also three large white crosses were donated by Dr. Phillips, and they have been put permanently there at Grace Baptist Church on the Troy Road Side of the Church. Kavanaugh did say that if anyone is interested in having this display of crosses they can contact Daviess County Right to Life at 812-486-3658.

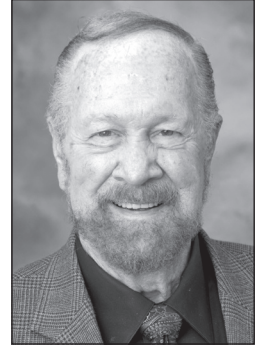

Right to Life Office to Remain at Grace Baptist Church

Daviess County Right to Life Office will remain at Grace Baptist Church but we will move to another office in the lower level. The Pregnancy Care Center will move next month to a new location in the west end of Washington and we will be moving after that but our P.O. Box will remain the same.

Pro-Life Leader Joe Scheidler Passes Away, He Inspired Pro-Life Americans to Vocally Oppose Abortion

Steven Ertelt Washington, DC

Pro-life pioneer Joe Scheidler, who has often been described as the "Godfather" of the American pro-life movement, passed away on January 18th. Scheidler was heralded as one of the early pro-life leaders to participate in protests at abortion clinics and to encourage Americans to vocally oppose abortion by speaking out for unborn children at the very abortion centers where they are killed.

Scheidler began fighting for the rights of the unborn even before the infamous Roe v. Wade decision. After working for other pro-life organizations for several years, Joe founded the Pro-Life Action League to serve the need he saw for pro-life Americans to take bold, direct action to save babies from abortion in their own communities. His 1985 pro-life activists manual, "CLOSED: 99 Ways to Stop Abortion," put pro-lifers throughout the United States and the world to work effectively fighting abortion. Scheidler's commitment and determination have been an inspiration for generations of pro-life activists who have followed.

Scheidler was so effective in protesting abortion businesses that the feminist group NOW filed a RICO lawsuit against him and accused him of being an illegal mobster targeting abortion centers. The Supreme Court considered the lawsuit and subsequent legal actions three times and ultimately decided in his favor. Joe Scheidler died of pneumonia at the age of 93 at 9:45 a.m. on Monday, January 18, 2021, surrounded by his family at his home on Chicago's northwest side. Joe is survived by his wife, Ann, seven children, twenty-six grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter.

Editor's Note: Joe Scheidler was the Right to Life Banquet Speaker in Daviess County on two separate occasions in 1987 and again in 1996. He was a dedicated pro-life individual and we are saddened at his passing but know that his reward in heaven will be great because he stood up for the unborn. May God grant him his eternal reward.

2021 Right to Life Banquet Date Will Either Be October 7 or 14

Timing depends on the availability of the speaker. We do not have a Speaker confirmed at this time but still have several in mind and have not made a final decision. We do hope the virus situation is better by this fall.

45 Abortion Clinics Closed in 2020, 79% of All Abortion Clinics Open in 1991 Have Shut Down

By Cheryl Sullenger, Washington, DC

A total of 45 abortion facilities closed or halted abortions nationwide in 2020, leaving one state without an active abortion facility, according to a survey conducted by Operation Rescue.

Missouri has become the first Abortion-Free State—at least in practice for now. The embattled Reproductive Health Services Planned Parenthood in St. Louis was the last abortion facility in Missouri. It remains open, but Operation Rescue has confirmed that no abortion appointments have been available there for months, and none are available anytime in the foreseeable future. All abortion appointments are now being referred to the Fairview Heights Planned Parenthood facility across the Mississippi River in Illinois.

“While the RHS Planned Parenthood remains open and licensed for abortions, we confirmed that none are being done there. That means this facility is currently acting only as an abortion referral center. There is no operational abortion facility in the state of Missouri, making it the first Abortion-Free State at this time,” said Operation Rescue President Troy Newman. “It is obvious that Planned Parenthood of the St. Louis Region, which operates RHSP, seeks to avoid having to comply with Missouri’s strong pro-life laws, and has opted to abort in Illinois where abortion facilities are essentially unaccountable. This shows a gross disrespect for the lives and safety of the women Planned Parenthood purports to serve.”

Other noteworthy facts were revealed by Operation Rescue’s survey of every U.S. abortion facility.

- There are currently 706 active abortion facilities in the U.S.
- Since Operation Rescue began tracking the number of abortion facilities in 2009, surgical abortion facilities have decreased in number by 255.
- Since 1991, there has been an incredible 79 percent drop in the number of surgical abortion facilities nationwide.
- There was a net loss of four U.S. abortion clinics overall in 2020.
- The number of Planned Parenthood abortion facilities decreased in 2020.
- 2020 was the first year that Operation Rescue tracked the number of facilities that distributed abortion drugs via telemedicine. The survey found that 69 locations, representing 9.78 percent of all abortion facilities, now operate telemedicine abortion programs.
- Each year, Operation Rescue conducts a nationwide survey that involves contact with each abortion business in the U.S. The information gathered about the abortion clinics and their practices represents the most current and accurate data available.

Are the Clergy or Pastors Doing What They Can to Stop Abortion and Help the Pro-Life Cause?

By Louis Kavanaugh Jr.

Some clergy are doing their part to speak about the abortion issue in the pulpit, but many clergy remain silent. Some are afraid of controversy and fear the church board may get rid of them, while some clergy are taken up with the new gospel that hears no evil or sees no evil, while others have been taken in by the liberal gospel. We in the pro-life movement have been trying for years to get the clergy to speak about the evil of abortion and the evil of supporting these pro-abortion politicians either by their vote at the polls or by their support in campaigns. Many pro-life people feel that if pastors/clergy had spoken up when abortion was first legalized in this country, it may have changed the landscape of abortion in our country. It kind of reminds you of what happened in Germany when the clergy looked the other way when Hitler was killing the Jews. Once he accomplished this, he then came for the Christians. We do have many fine pastors and clergy that do speak up. But we need all of them in harmony speaking what the Bible teaches. One may go as far as to say if a Christian based church or religion does not speak out emphatically on the intrinsic evil of abortion and does not guide and direct their parishioners as such, especially in matters such as public elections, one should be questioning the church’s leadership. There is no separation of church and state when the state forces one to accept, practice, and support things that are completely against his/her religious beliefs. Prepare, for this is happening!
